

Double Trouble Rhyme Time

When the BOGS squad shows up at Ella Mentry School, everyone has to be good at all times—or else. We all know that Andrea is soooooo good, but boy, would A.J. love to get her in trouble! Help A.J. out by writing a silly poem that would make Andrea LOL during class.

To help you get started with your poem, think of a word or phrase that rhymes with each of these words and phrases from Miss Kraft Is Daft! Write your words in the blanks below. Then use at least five of the words or phrases to help you write a silly poem of your own. Remember, the funnier, the better!
