

Write Your Own Weir & Wild Zoo Adventure

Imagine what would happen if you were let loose in the zoo with A.J. and the other kids from Ella Mentry School! Fill in the blanks with your favorite weird words to describe your wild zoo adventure. Remember—choose weird words to use so your story isn't a snooze!

I won a _____ contest, and the prize was a trip to the _____ (school subject) (place name)
zoo with students from Ella Mentry School. I was so _____!
(adjective)

Mr. Granite assigned _____ as my zoo buddy.
(name of character from My Weirder School series)

_____ came along, too, as an extra chaperone. The bus ride (name of teacher from My Weirder School series)
to the zoo took _____. Even though the bus smelled (measure of time)

like _____, it was really _____. My zoo buddy grabbed (type of food) (adjective)
my _____, and we ran toward the _____.
(body part) (group of animals)

I could not believe how _____ they were! _____!
(adjective) (exclamation)

We _____ around the zoo _____-ing (past tense verb) (verb)
at all the different animals. My favorite were the _____. After a quick (plural animal)

lunch of _____, we were ready to _____ (type of food) (verb)
the zoo again. The elephants were _____, and the gorillas smelled (adjective)

like _____. But nothing beat the way the lions

_____! It was a(n) _____ day, and I will (past tense verb) (adjective)

_____ it forever. I can't wait to go to the zoo again, (verb)

“ _____!”
(quote from My Weirder School series)

Teachers: Visit www.myweirdclassroomclub.com for more My Weirder School activities.

HARPER

An Imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers